20 Questions to Help You Choose a Pet Insurance Provider

It can be tough to sift through the legal jargon included in many pet information packets. After you do some research online and find a few companies you might like to work with, it's time to dig a little deeper. Use this list of questions to find the level of care that's just right for you and your pet.

- 1. Is the company licensed in your state? Which of their policies are available in your state?
- 2. Does the company have a good reputation? What do the Better Business Bureau or other independent organizations have to say about it? How long has the company been around?
